

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT TO SCOTIA COMMUNITY SERVICES DISTRICT VACANCY

Qualifications:

Candidates must:

- be a registered voter
- reside within the SCSD's service area

Term:

Beginning: January 2019

End of Current Term: December 2021

Time Commitment:

One regular meeting per month, on the third Thursday at 5:30pm. Occasionally additional special meetings are scheduled. Board packets are sent approximately one week in advance of meetings for review.

Compensation:

Board members are paid a $50.00 stipend per meeting.

Current District Activity:

The Scotia CSD board is responsible for overseeing the District on regular and ongoing business such as maintaining compliance with State water and wastewater standards and infrastructure maintenance and repairs. In addition, the District is in the process of acquiring grants for new water and wastewater facilities as well as the acquisition of funding and reserves for future infrastructure projects. Plans for upgrades and maintenance to several parks and recreation facilities, such as new roofing for the Winema Theater and carpenter shop, and ADA upgrades for the museum and baseball field are underway. With the recent removal of the locomotive, the Scotia CSD Board will be responsible for the redesign of the Scotia Museum Plaza.
